Report: -

The new session was ushered in with much elan and grandeur, instilling in students, hope and positivity to brace the coming session.

The assembly commenced with benediction and prayers for the blessings of the school, followed by the school pledge, renewing allegiance to their country and to their school.

The students of Class XII A enumerated on the importance of abiding by the resolutions to achieve excellence in life.

It was a moment of sheer pride for the school to bag the National School award instituted by Student Development Society, Maharashtra. The school Principal gave away prizes to the winners who brought laurels and appreciated the concerted efforts of the students and the staff. It was indeed an auspicious beginning infused with fervor and zeal!
